How can I make healthy more convenient?

Busy schedules make convenient foods more desirable for families. However, pre-packaged snacks tend to be low in nutrition but high in salt, sugars and calories. Planning ahead and keeping nutritious snacks on hand in your fridge or freezer helps to make the healthy choice the first choice when life gets hectic. We value your feedback! Planning the Day with Snacks

- Snacks are important because children have smaller stomachs and need extra energy to grow and be active.
- Make it a habit to choose a variety of healthy foods for your snacks.
- Snacks can help control hunger throughout the day and can prevent overeating at mealtimes.
- Serve snacks at least 2 hours before meals so children will be hungry at mealtime.
- Provide a snack before or after physical activity to give your child the energy they need.
- Limit intake of pre-packaged snacks. Remember all foods can fit so you don't need to eliminate them completely.
- Fruit makes a great snack; it doesn't involve too much prep work and is ready when you are!
- Keep washed, cut up veggies in your fridge so they are ready when a snack is needed. Pair veggies with a protein source such as hummus, cheese or peanut butter.

Save money by preparing snacks ahead of time and keeping snacks on hand or in the car when you are on the go! (see muffin recipe on back)
